A Father means

A Father means so many things...
An understanding heart,
A source of strength and support right from the very start.

A constant readiness to help

With encouragement and forgiveness,

No matter what comes your way.
A special generosity and always affection,

SUNDAY, 16 JUNE 2024

16 June 1976 has gone down as a huge day in history, in South Africa and in the global community as well. On this day, across many townships of this country, the youth made a huge sacrifice. They stood together as one and laid down their lives for the sake of freedom. They fought for equality and for everyone's voice to be heard. As today's youth, we are also facing a lot of challenges. Our challenges may be different, but they are equally big. Our youth are faced with drugs, unemployment, teenage pregnancy, the HIV pandemic and illiteracy on a daily basis. As we work through these challenges, it is important to look back at how far we have come and to celebrate the youth of 1976 who played a vital role in getting us here. Today we are free to go where we please, to be friends with whom we choose. To attend the schools and universities that we prefer and to learn in a language that we are comfortable with. We have forums, parties and programmes that enable us to voice our opinions and make sure that we are heard. We have access to the news, internet and social networking platforms that keep us updated and give us the platform to be publishers and express our thoughts and opinions too. As the future leaders of this country, we have the power to stand together and make an impact.
